Reading Questions for Setting Hearts on Fire

Week 4: Chapters 7-8

1. On page 89, what does Chapman say is the most important part of preparing a talk? Do you agree?

2. Will everything you learn/discover in your personal study be included in the talk?

3. According to Chapman, what are the three basic parts of a talk? In what order should they be prepared? Which part will require the most preparation?

4. What question should you ask yourself after studying your passage (see page 91)?

5. On pages 92 and following, Chapman gives 5 basic parts to each main point in the "body" of the talk. What are these five basic parts? Are all parts of equal length?

6. What are some ways to highlight the main points of your talk (see page 94)?

7. According to Chapman, what are some of the purposes of illustrations (page 106)?

8. When do illustrations fail 9pages 107-09)?

9. Are illustrations always lengthy?

10. How does preparing your talk in advance help with regards to illustrations?