

Four-Part Bible Reading Plan

This plan, developed from Discipleship Journal, segments the whole Bible into 300 daily readings. This plan offers special features that will aid you in your journey through the Bible:

- By reading from four separate places in the Scriptures every day, you should be able to grasp better the unity of the Scriptures, as well as enjoy the variety of four different viewpoints.
- You can begin at any point during the year.
- To prevent the frustration of falling behind, which most of us tend to do when following a Bible reading plan, each month of this plan gives you only 25 readings. Since you'll have several "free days" each month, you could set aside Sundays either not to read at all, to catch up on any reading you may have missed in the past week, or to meditate on a particular passage from the previous week's readings.
- If you finish the month's readings early, you could use the final days of the month to study the passages that challenged or intrigued you.
- If reading through the entire Bible in one year looms as too large a task, you can alter the plan to meet your needs. For example, you could read the gospels and the wisdom books this year, and the other two categories next year.

In the year ahead, ask God each day to speak directly to you from the Scripture portions you read. Be expectant, and let your continual exposure to God's Word reshape your attitudes and behavior as you gain a better understanding of every part of His written testimony to us.

How to Use This Guide:

- Step 1: Get a Bible that you can highlight and write your study notes in.
- Step 2: Read the indicated verses for each day. Example: On January 1, read Genesis 1-2, Psalm 1, Matthew 1:1-17, and Acts 1:1-11
- Step 3: Check the boxes beside each passage when you have completed the reading. Repeat this process daily until you read the entire Bible.

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers."
