

6. “Sometimes when I return, I discover that the passage does not really say what I thought it had. So I scrap it and chose another” (page 86). How does this statement bring a dose of reality to studying Scripture and preparing devotionals?